

Drive Change at School

ONE
IN 10

child asthma cases are linked to traffic pollution.

57%!

of Atlanta's CO2 emissions come from cars, and it can impact your students' health.

What can parents do?

Carpooling or riding the school bus to reduce traffic.

Avoiding idling. Turn your car's engine off while waiting for your student Checking your tire pressure to improve fuel efficiency.

To learn more about Georgia Commute Schools and how you can help us make a healthy change in our community, visit gacommutoptions.com/schools/georgia-commute-schools.